Jonathan,

Further to the various discussions, we provide the following comments and note related outstanding points:

1. Rep Letter – We attach a blackline containing our suggested change as we found the language in the last paragraph on the first page to be overly broad. Seems fine to me. In addition, we note that we think it would be better to create two letters, one letter should be addressed to the limited partner, and the other to Michelle Investments as the lender. This seems fine. Please advise who will be the process agent in the UK for Mill River and Michelle.
2. Limited Partnership Agreement and IMA – we are fine with most recent changes that have been circulated related to these documents, though as we note below the changes to the IMA should be reflected in the PPM and, to the extent relevant, in the LP Agreement. Only the PPM needs to be updated, as attached, and hopefully this addresses your comments below in point 3.

3. PPM

- Section 13 – Fees of the Investment Manager (Fourth Paragraph) – We wanted to make sure that the language was clear that the fee calculation is not based on the principal amount of a loan to the partnership. We assume that the phrase “accrued payable” is meant to capture any fee under the loan agreement and any accrued interest on the loan but not any principal amount. Perhaps this could be made a bit clearer. In addition, why is the fee calculation made before accrued Performance Fees are deducted? We would have thought the opposite to be the case: any accrued, but not paid, Performance Fee should be deducted from the calculation.
- Section 13 – Fee of the Investment Manager (Last Paragraph referring to the Adjustment Performance Fees) – In light of the changes to the IMA we assume this paragraph is going to be deleted.

4. Subordinated Loan Agreement – between Michelle Investments and Hamlyn LP Please see comments as attached. Once we are in agreement, I will circulate to Scotia for comment.

Regards,
Peter

Subject: Due Diligence in London

Aneil and Jonathan:

Assuming everything is ok with Scotia, we would like to come to London next week (preferably Tuesday, December 4th and have 2 different on-site meetings. One at Duet (including senior management as well as Nick and others involved in the trading) and one at Scotia (Mark Cameron). We assume that one or both of you would come from Dubai. From our side it would likely be Matt Stein and Jerome Lhote, since they then have some meetings later in the week in Germany.

We should have a call on Tuesday morning (around 10 am, NY time) to talk about these meetings and the documentation process.

Please confirm.

Thanks,

Richard
